Let Us Speak Words of Thanksgiving

Philemon 1:1-7

¹Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our dear friend and fellow worker,

²to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier and to the church that meets in your home:

³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I always thank my God as I remember you in my prayers,

⁵because I hear about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints.

⁶I pray that you may be active in sharing your faith, so that you will have a full understanding of every good thing we have in Christ.

⁷Your love has given me great joy and encouragement, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the saints

Focus Points

Although our environment may seem filled only with hardships, in reality, there are also many bright, joyful, and thankful things around us.

When we live in the light, we live with gratitude and joy. But when we dwell in darkness, we live unhappy lives filled with complaints and resentment.

Thanksgiving is a powerful spiritual battle.
-Satan tries to prevent us from being thankful.

Gratitude has the power to bring prosperity.

[Questions]

1. What are some situations that make it difficult for us to be thankful?
2. In those situations, is there truly no reason to give thanks?
3. Can we try to find one or two reasons to be thankful, even in those moments?
4. Have you ever experienced the power of gratitude?
5. Today, what are you thankful to Jesus for?
